

SHEET METAL WORKERS' NATIONAL PENSION FUND

8403 ARLINGTON BLVD., SUITE 300

FAIRFAX, VA 22031

January 2018

Tearyn Loving has been appointed as General Counsel of the Sheet Metal Workers' National Pension Fund, effective January 8, 2018. Having filled roles both inside a Fund Office and as outside counsel, Tearyn has accumulated more than twenty (20) years of experience working with qualified retirement plans.

Tearyn comes to the NPF after 11 years representing qualified retirement plans as an attorney for the law firm Bredhoff & Kaiser, PLLC. Her practice focused on a broad range of employee benefit matters related to compliance with ERISA and the Internal Revenue Code, and the day-to-day administration of health and retirement plans. In addition to her employee benefits practice, Tearyn represented clients in various audits and investigations by state and federal agencies for all types of matters.

Prior to working for Bredhoff & Kaiser, PLLC, Tearyn was an employee of the Service Employees International Union (SEIU) Benefit Funds Office for 10 years. She worked in various positions for SEIU's benefit plans including as a pension processor, a payroll auditor, the Collections Manager, and in-house Collections legal counsel.
